Crisis Services is a unique, non-profit mental health and human service agency with the mission of providing immediate professional assistance to anyone at anytime who is experiencing emotional or personal crisis, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

From PTSD associated with the Vietnam War, to the current addiction epidemic, including overdoses and drug-related deaths; crises events are unpredictable. Suicide, domestic violence, sexual assault, elder abuse, addiction issues, or struggling with mental health are all areas in which our staff offers their expertise and advocacy. Crisis Services' phone lines have been manned 24/7, 365 days a year since 1968.
